Science College, Washim
Best Practice IV

Involvement of teachers in development of college website.

Moto "Excellence in Teacher Quality with the Contemporary trends of ICT in Education".

Objectives:

- 1) To compile data regarding update of relevant subject on college web site.
- 2) To know about User ID and password so as to Update information at any time with respect to Notices before programme and Reports after the Programme.
- 3) Acquire knowledge of Implementation of ICT in various regards.
- 4) To discuss various problems and issues related to website page updating
- 5) To share maximum information in relation to subject such as Extension, Extracurricular Activities, Association.

Context:

R. A. College website www.rac.ac.in is the mirror that reflects its perfect image of every activity occurring in the campus throughout the year. As the institute multi-faculty and many subjects, the data of various activities taken by every department is difficult update on the website by a single technician. When at least a single person in the department is trained in this regard the updates will result very regular for the knowledge of any person visiting college website for any desirable information.

Practice:

Every department of the college is having information of their own departmental profiles. The same information data is converted in soft copy so that can be uploaded on the college website by the respective department so that the website remain updated with full information for the use of stakeholders. IQAC Co-ordinator conducted one day workshop on training of Use of ICT in update of College website with respect to different subject departments. Each department is allotted its own user name and password so as to access its own page for updates. The college website thus become enriched that helps our institution to substance and enhancement of quality in application of ICT.

Evidence of Success:

College website: www.rac.ac.in is updated with maximum data of activities taken in the college.

Resources: All heads of the Departments, their subordinate staff, Teaching and non-teaching, students, Participants.
