On February 9, 2013, everyone was very eager to march on the way of Mysore and we took the way of it at early in the morning at 7.30 AM. In the scheduled programme of sightseeing first of all we visited Ranganatha Swamy temple of Srirangapatana, Tippu's Fort and Gumbaz. The most beautiful Mysore Palace was waiting for us. This palace is the place which the most Indian and pilgrims from abroad prefers to visit. At the dawn and dusk we saw the beautiful and an ancient temple of CHAMUNDI DEVI, a model of ancient architecture and sculpture. In the return journey from the hill we saw Nandi, the fourth biggest statue of bull in India. In evening we visited the most popular and sacred place of Mysore, Saint Philomina's Church. We prayed there along with all devotees. At last we marched to our hotel where halt was scheduled. We enjoyed north Indian dinner at the Hotel Gokul Woodland and after that everybody worshiped the goddess of sleep, the Nidra Devi to shed off the physical exertion. On 10th February while marching on the way of the most beautiful place, Ooty we visited Bandipur National Park and Madumalai Forest where students could observe deers, peacock and elephants and the dense. Students enjoyed boating at Ooty boat house and then marched to the Tea factory where we observed tea processing and enjoyed a cup of tea with its fresh flavor. The most beautiful garden was visited by we in the late noon. We observed number of plants and we played some games in the garden and left it to receive the hotel for halt. After dinner we walked some distance on the streets of Ooty to enjoy the cold weather. On 11th February, we started our journey early in the morning to visit Coonoor where we visited tea gardens, Dolphinose, Simpark, Ketty Valley, Kodanadu points and Lomb's rocks. After dinner we back marched to Bangalore. On 12th we took full day rest and on 13th we proceeded for the site seeing of Bangalore In the noon hours we visited Tipu,s summer palace which is built by teak wood. The palace was so cool that no was ready to leave it in those hot days but we have had to leave it because next spot i. e. Lalbagh Garden was waiting for us. After leaving Lalbagh Garden we visited Vishveshwariah Technological museum, Assembly of Karnataka, M.G. Road, Art and Craft Emporium

.On 14th February we enjoyed the marketing and departed from Bangalore to Nanded at 10.00 PM. We reached to Washim on 16th February at 1.30 AM. Thus the tour became most pleasures and memorable to us.
